

Please look into this matter. The timing and the content of this program is nothing but partisan, mudslinging propaganda. If Sinclair supports Bush, then air a positive program about him that is truthful, instead of something obviously distorted with the intention of destroying Sen. Kerry. Or is there nothing positive about Bush that is credible?